4. X-TREME TEAM CHALLENGE (XTC): Will be held this Saturday, 28 October 2017, at Los Alamitos Joint Forces Training Base. The Warning Order (WARNO) and all information pertaining to the XTC can be viewed at <http://www.cacadets.org/node/352>. Check in is from 0630-0730.

As the XTC is coming around the corner this is a quick reminder of the uniform and what you should bring. Class C uniforms are to be worn without blouses, dry fit shirts are allowed instead of the white t-shirts, XTC shirts will be provided during check-in, covers are to be worn as well. If a unit does not have sufficient Class C pants for issuance, jeans may be worn instead. Boots or tennis shoes should be worn. All grooming standards still apply, females must have hair in neat buns and males must have a clean shave. Water bottles or canteens and sunscreen are mandatory to bring. Although lunch will be provided, it is advised to bring money for additional food and concessions.

Units that will be arriving on Friday, 27 October 2017 will be bivouacking and need to provide their own sleeping bags, hygiene items, flashlights, breakfast, and other essential items. Tents will be provided and breakfast will be available for purchase.

5. 2018 SUMMER ENCAMPMENT CHANGES: There are some tentative changes to the 2018 Summer Encampment. There will be two separate encampments, and possibly a third. The unknown dates are for an Entrance Camp for Oakland Military Institute (OMI) and California Military Institute (CMI). The Leadership Encampment (Basic/BST, OCS, and NCO) will be scheduled 16-23 June with ADVON being 13-16 June. The Advanced Encampment (all the units usually in the Advanced Regiment) is going to be conducted in conjunction with BCTA/ACTA/CLS 13-20 July with ADVON being 10-13 July.
