

Moral Leadership Assessment

“Beliefs, Values, and Norms”

Name _____

Circle True or False:

T / F: Beliefs, values, and norms provide meaning and direction in our lives.

T / F: Beliefs, values, and norms are generally the same across all cultures and groups.

T / F: The CACC organizational beliefs, values, and norms are set by individual schools.

T / F: Every Cadet has his or her own personal beliefs, but must embrace the beliefs, values and norms set by the CACC in order for the organization to be effective and valuable to each individual.

T / F: Norms are the same as rules.

T / F: Traditions are things that have been done a certain way for a long time and are followed like rules.

T / F: As you embrace the CACC’s beliefs, values, and norms, your own core beliefs and values will change.

T / F: Not every Cadet can experience equal opportunity in the CACC program.

T / F: Diversity means there are many differences, such as race, gender, religion, culture/ethnicity, sexual orientation, and disabilities, in our group.

T / F: An important part of being a leader is motivating your subordinates.

T / F: Everyone is motivated pretty much in the same way, so apply what motivates you to motivating your subordinates.

T / F: Other cadets will reciprocate respect if you respect them and treat them fairly.